The Italian Government Tourist Board was founded in 1919. Its principal activity during these years has been to promote Italy throughout the world. Italian style was an important part of ENIT's advertising as you can see from the following historic posters of the country.
Italian Government Tourist Board North America – www.italiantourism.com
Cadenabbia-Tremezzo
Lago di Como
Golf - Tennis

Cortina
This brochure has been designed by the Italian Government Tourist Board and its entire content is copyright protected. All rights are owned by the Italian Government Tourist Board or third parties. Duplication of the content, or parts therein, in any written or electronic form is permitted only with a specific mention of the Italian Government Tourist Board. Any use of any of the elements appearing in the brochure without the express written consent of the Italian Government Tourist Board is strictly prohibited.

The Italian Government Tourist Board
Director North America: Riccardo Strano
630 Fifth Avenue - Suite 1565
New York, New York 10111
Tel: (212) 245-5618
Fax: (212) 586-9249
enitny@italiantourism.com
www.italiantourism.com